PROPOSED RESOLUTIONIN CELEBRATION OF THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF FARLEY KEITH WILLIAMS
AKA FARLEY JACKMASTER FUNK “THE KING OF HOUSE MUSIC”

WHEREAS, the members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners; wishes to recognize the outstanding years of sustainability of house music by Farley “Jackmaster Funk” Keith Williams; and

WHEREAS, Farley Keith Williams was born on January 25, 1962 on the southside of Chicago. He is the father of 3 children, a grandfather, and husband to his wife of 14 years; and

WHEREAS, Farley worked for his father’s dry-cleaning business from 1969 - 1972 and was bitten by the music bug from his brothers playing James Brown to Aretha Franklin, because he loved the early soul and funk days while growing up; and

WHEREAS, at the age of twelve Farley began DJing small parties in the basement, and at block clubs with friends. Soon after, Farley received an opportunity to play music for adults while standing on top of milk cartons. They enjoyed it so much that they paid him; and

WHEREAS, in 1981 Farley first made his name broadcasting on Chicago’s WBMX-FM as a member of the Hot Mix 5 DJ Team, which included Ralphie “The Razz” Rosario, Kenny “Jammin” Jason, Mickey “Mixin” Oliver, and Scot “Smokin” Seals; and

WHEREAS, Farley appeared at the legendary Warehouse nightclub, and was a resident DJ of the club Playground; and

WHEREAS, Farley was known as Farley Keith, or Farley “Funkin” Keith until 1984, when he adopted

the name Farley “Jackmaster” Funk; and

WHEREAS, Farley was the first DJ in history to introduce House Music on the radio in 1984 thus breaking the sound to millions of listeners daily, and every Friday & Saturday night on the radio station WBMX 102.7 FM with the widely popular Hot Mix 5 radio multicultural DJ group; and

WHEREAS, in 1985, Farley’s power in house music was so strong that he left WBMX (now known as V103 radio) to go to the revival station WGCI that was number 10 in the market, and start another DJ team called the Jack master 5 which took that station to #1. He soon found himself back at WBMX a year later, as he was the most requested DJ for his incredible House Music programming; and

WHEREAS, the first house single to reach the charts was recorded by seminal Chicago DJ and producer, Farley “Jackmaster” Funk. In 1986 his song hit the Top Ten chart “Love Can’t Turn Around” featuring the incredible voice of the late Darryl Pandy, with the production team of Jesse Sanders and Vince Lawrence. Ironically, not in his home country but in the U.K., he also became one of the biggest names in Chicago house; and

WHEREAS, Farley was the first DJ/Producer known around the globe for bringing this form of music to the shores of England in 1986, thus putting House Music on the map and paving the way for others around the world; and

WHEREAS, in 1986 Farley became a DMC Winner (The World DJ Championship in Britain); and

WHEREAS, 1987 was a pivotal year in Chicago’s short but sweet house music scene. Promoters were beginning to throw big tent parties at hotels, theaters, and more adult clubs like Club LaRay, C.O.D., Medusa’s, and A.K.A. where Farley began to spin house music; and

WHEREAS, prior to landing on top of all the European Charts, he created the very first house music record label House Records to define the lifestyle and sound of house music. He followed up with other hit songs (like House Nation and Acid Life) and a host of over 20 hit Records which was around the summer of love era (a name given to a period in the United Kingdom during the rise of Acid House Music and Rave Parties). Some of Farley’s top 10 hits were under several pseudo names that he recorded, AKA House Master Boys, Farley Funkin Keith and some were top secret; and

WHEREAS, Farley was the first House Music DJ/Producer ever to receive the Brit Award (Equivalent to the Grammy’s in Europe) which beat out Janet Jackson as he was recognized for revolutionizing the sound of Dance Music; and

WHEREAS, Farley, had many big tunes including ‘Jack My Body’, ‘Hey Norton’, ‘The Trax U Lost’ and most famously, ‘House Nation’; and

WHEREAS, Farley has created countless opportunities of employment for young men who see DJing as a way of supporting their families. Many who have now made a name for themselves in the music industry. He continues to be a formidable force of today, with a musical career spanning three decades; and

WHEREAS, Farley is currently still mixing on V103 radio thus making him the longest running House Music DJ/Producer to be on the radio. His program time begins at 11:45pm every Friday night. With this fact, he's awaiting confirmation to set a Guinness Book of World's records; and

WHEREAS, in December of 2013, Farley is the only DJ/Producer who was inducted into the U.S. Dance Music Hall of Fame twice; for his work and with his Hot Mix 5 Radio DJ team; and

WHEREAS, in 2017 Farley was honored with the Brandegee Lifetime Achievement Award in Malaysia, during one of his DJ sets while on an Asian Tour; and

WHEREAS, in 2018 Farley is the first DJ to make history during the Universoul Circus 25th year anniversary celebration as he opened up and introduced a House Music Day Festival, while unveiling plans to have the International House Music Museum and Hall of Fame (IHMMHF) to be constructed here as Chicago is now known as the House Music Capitol of the world; and

WHEREAS, May 02 is deemed as Farley "Jackmaster" Funk Day in the city of Chicago. Every year Farley looks forward to giving back to his childhood community by being a part of the 79th street Renaissance Festival; and

WHEREAS, Farley's dedication to the Genre of house music shall be shared publicly among his, friends, family, and the community; and

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the President and members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners that Cook County shall congratulate the legendary Farley "Jackmaster" Funk Keith Williams on his many years of success; and

PROPOSED RESOLUTION

REMEMBERING DR. WILLIAM J HARDEN

As the Apostle Paul said so eloquently to his protégé Timothy, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteousness judge, shall give me at that day; and on not to me only, but on to all that love his appearing."

WHEREAS, God possesses omniscience, who is omnipresent and who is omnipotent summoned the angel, Gabriel to blow his almighty trumpet to welcome home Dr. William J. Harden, from his labor to receive his reward; and

WHEREAS, Dr. William J Harden, coached countless football players in the Chicago Public Schools

(CPS), served as the first African American to be appointed Director of Health, Physical Education and Safety in the City of Chicago and served the Chicago Public School system for approximately 40 years; and

WHEREAS, Dr. William J. Harden, enjoyed serving our community as an educator with his love for learning and his quest for higher education, he also enjoyed being a sports announcer during the football season with legendary sportscaster, Bob Greenberg on WBEZ-FM Radio station; and

WHEREAS, many of us know excellent educators who work very hard each day to aggrandize and inspire those who are sometimes left behind. Some of us argue it is because of the outdated apparatus, some say it is because of insufficient wages, some say it is because of poor and unsafe working conditions in underprivileged areas, but one thing is certain, it is because our society needs more people like Dr. William J. Harden.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Bill Lowry, Cook County Commissioner of the 3rd District, do hereby stand and solute the tireless work of Dr. William J. Harden.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution will be presented to the family of Dr. William J. Harden, Geneva Harden (spouse), Shawn Harden (daughter) and Dr. Shellie Harden (daughter).

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution will be filed within the office of Cook County Commissioner Bill Lowry.
